

OLLIE BURGESS STRUCK BY CAR

Ollie Burgess, Shelton, N. C., was painfully injured about the head last night shortly after dark near the rock crusher on the Reidsville road when he was struck by an automobile. He was picked up by Charlie Childress, of Pelham, N. C., and brought to Edmunds hospital, where his wounds were given attention.

Burgess was walking along the road when an automobile, the driver of which is unknown, struck him, throwing him to one side of the road. It is understood that the driver of the car that struck the man continued on his way, making no effort to succor the man he had injured.

Childress happened along a few minutes after the accident and picked up the injured man and brought him to Edmunds hospital, where it was stated last night that his injuries were not serious.

There were rumors about the streets last night that a man had been killed on the Reidsville road, but this could not be verified, and probably emanated from the accident in which Burgess figured.

TO MUCH OUTSIDE STUDY

ALLA TARASOVA AS GRUSHENKA, LEONID LEONIDOFF AS DMITRY (TOP), VASSILY LUZHSKY AS THE FATHER (CENTER), AND LYOFY BULGAKOFF AS THE ILLEGITIMATE SON IN THE MOSCOW ART THEATERS PRODUCTION OF 'THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV'

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—When the Moscow Art Theater players and their brief engagement in New York to tour the principal cities of the country, they will do well to omit from their repertoire "The Brothers Karamazov," a truncated drama employing six scenes of Dostoevsky's novel.

Too much home study is required for an intelligent following of this play. The burden of following drama in a strange language is great enough without trying to piece together written resumes of omitted action, explanations furnished by a stage reader and the action which occurs on the stage.

In the play, brilliant passages in which the consummate art of the players uses every barrier of speech. There is the scene in which Dmitri Karamazov visits Grushenka in the inn at Mokroe and his coming is celebrated with high revelry. No language is needed for an understanding of this wild orgy. It is far the most colorful scene the stage has held this season.

And then there is the scene in which the magnificent Vassili Katergaloff depicts Ivan Karamazov's mental collapse as he tries to reason out all the perplexities of life. Katergaloff's voice has the range of an organ cadenza. Although the spectator cannot understand one syllable of what he says there is never any doubt as to the emotion which surges him.

Yet all of this is not entertainment. It is mental exertion. And theaters are not filled by persons in search of such exercise.

Eleanora Duse was the guest of honor at the opening night of the Moscow players. She sat in a box at the left of the proscenium, withdrawing into a deep shadow until some voice on the stage started her into attention. Then she would lean near over the rail of the box and train her opera glasses upon the players. The excitement of the moment having

All Sunday schools interested in basket ball are urged to have a representative at the meeting scheduled for Monday night at 8 o'clock. With the starting time little more than a week away, managers and captains should get busy with their line up, and be sure to have your entry in by Monday night. Following the meeting a schedule for the season will be arranged and published.

The Y. M. C. A. team is training faithfully and practicing often about fifteen candidates were out at the regular practice, among the newcomers showing up well is "Dink" Dickerson, a former high school star. The first training will be on Monday night, and will consist of a showing all kinds of speed on the floor. A schedule is being arranged with some of the fastest teams in this section of the state and with nearby North Carolina teams.

The wrestling and boxing classes are picking up in attendance and interest. With Hubert Honeycutt looking after the wrestling and John Ramey the boxers both these popular sports are well taken care of and the director of the department is looking for more interest and attendance as the classes swing into the winter program.

The Business Men's Club has been practicing basketball and expect to play several matches in the near future.

In the regular boys' classes, under intermediate and high improvement has been made in the attendance.

passed she would sink back again into the shadow and study the audience through her glasses.

Duse, regarded by many as the world's greatest living actress, looked like a gray, grandmotherly little woman and less like an actress than most of the women in the audience.

The Theater Guild in selecting H. R. Lenormand, the Frenchman, for its second play of the season faces some of the same difficulties that beset the Moscow players' production of "The Brothers Karamazov." Significant values have been lost in translation and the play becomes somewhat of an outline of drama.

But there is another point of similarity with the Russian production—the weight of the play's mechanics has not suited the flaming spirit of its actors. In the final scene Jacob Berens, a drunken and violent killer, has his fatherless wife here in tragedy made real and terrifying by the fervor with which it is played. And Winifred Lenihan, who gave such great promise as Ann Hathaway in "The Merchant of Venice," has been reduced to a mere shadow in the role of the immortal wife.

George Marion, who originated the role of Christ in "The Christ," returns to Broadway as an opium-dive keeper in "Out of the Seven Seas." This is a hard melodrama with a plot much like that of "The Man Who Came Back," since it concerns a young man who crossed the Pacific, fell in with dope-users, found the girl of his state and was regenerated. This play has one great role and George Marion is one great actor playing it.

At least four "Hamlets" will be produced this season. Southern and Marlowe have already staged theirs. Sir John Martin Harvey is holding forth with his this week. The latter performance is distinguished by the fact that every word of the play is intelligible to the audience.

U. S. ARTISTS TURNING TO FIGURES NOW

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—That painters of today are doing more figure and portrait work and apparently getting away from the pure landscape, is indicated in the present exhibition at the Art Institute here of American paintings and sculpture, in which is represented the works of artists and sculptors from all parts of the United States.

Another notable absence in the 232 works of art selected for the exhibition is the opinion of the jury is any marked influence of the so-called modern or post-impressionist school. While many of the paintings show a progressive broadening of treatment and technique, at the same time they are not that speak an intelligible language.

A comparison of the paintings of today with the work of the masters of the two centuries ago, shows that our artists are using much brighter colors and many more of them.

Members of the jury declare "They are painting in a much bolder key, and to be a modern artist, he must have a boldness of color and a boldness of line."

There are more works of art submitted for the exhibition than for any previous year, and the jury is expected to select a large number of the best.

When the jury has selected the best, the exhibition will be held in the new building at the Art Institute.

LIONS OFFICES NOW IN CHICAGO

Permanent headquarters of the International Association of Lions Clubs has been secured in Chicago by the board of directors. The new headquarters will be located in the McCormick building in Chicago, and it has now been decided to remain there. By vote of the directors Secretary General Melvin Jones has been instructed to take quarters under a long term lease.

This section of the country was represented in the deliberations by International Director B. A. Ruffin. While all parts of the United States and Canada took part in considering the question, the consensus was that headquarters should be maintained in a place centrally located and easily accessible from all parts of the continent. Such a place, all conceded, was Chicago. The board of directors therefore instructed the secretary-general to sign a six-year lease for the McCormick building in Chicago; and to secure an option on the same space for a longer period if it shall be desired.

Secretary General Jones has been with the organization since it was formed in 1917, and is under contract to serve until 1927. He has had his part in building up the Lions International from the few hundred members with which it started to its present state of 750 clubs with more than 40,000 members distributed over 47 states of the union and four provinces of Canada.

These 750 clubs in the last year have engaged in more than 300 major projects for the betterment of their communities, the teaching of service and patriotism, and the promotion of goodwill. They have built schools and asylums, cared for the poor, helped boys and girls from orphanages, worked for good roads and done a thousand kindly acts. One Lions club has established for the blind children of the state a magazine in which children's stories are printed in large type and each letter which the blind can read.

This city offers an example of the splendid type of men who form Lions clubs everywhere and the noble work they do. They are chosen from the best professional and business men in each community, and the Lions always co-operate with chambers of commerce and other civic organizations. The Lions International also publishes a monthly magazine which reaches its entire membership of 40,000.

Chicago is now the permanent headquarters of the international organization of the most prominent three civic clubs in the United States.

UNION MUTUAL LOAN MATURES ITS 15TH SERIES

The Union Mutual Building and Loan Association matured its 15th series Saturday, November 24th, and is now preparing for the opening of its 16th series, which begins Saturday, December 1st.

This institution began business in July 1910, with approximately five hundred shares, and during the past 13 years has sold thirty thousand three hundred and fifty-two shares. There were two thousand nine hundred shares sold in the last issue, which was in July. The association has made 470 loans, totaling more than one million dollars, exclusively on real estate within the corporate limits of the city of Danville, on the first mortgages, with a liberal margin for safety. It has made 250 loans, totaling $119,000, to its shareholders on their shares, based on amounts not exceeding ninety per cent. of the actual cash paid in.

The Union Mutual is playing its part in Danville's progress, and is adding numbers to own their homes, and at a reasonable rate of interest. Numbers of shares are only for the investment they afford.

This association operates exclusively on the mutual plan, doing business only with its members, all sharing alike in the profits and is growing rapidly. It is possibly of interest to note the fact that it has never had to foreclose a mortgage during its 13 years of operation.

The officers are: President, W. T. Gravely; secretary, A. R. Gravely; treasurer, Miss Clarice McLehland; assistant secretary, and H. C. Leigh, collector. Its board is composed of the following: J. B. P. Withers, Frank Talbott, C. L. Booth, E. T. Parham, M. O. Nelson, G. P. Geoghegan, Jr., T. A. Fox, H. F. Day, and W. T. Gravely.

Brooklyn Salesman Identified As One Of Hold-Up Slayers

Bartow Diamond Held as One of Three Men Who Killed Two Bank Employees and Escaped With $43,000.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Bartow Diamond, a Brooklyn salesman, who was arrested last night in the Hotel Statler at Cleveland as one of the three hold-up men who shot to death two employees of the West End Bank on November 14 and escaped with $43,000 in cash, arrives today under heavy guard to face witnesses, who, police say, have identified his picture as that of one of the hold-up men.

In the murder and robbery William S. Barlow, a retired police sergeant and Win. H. McLaughlin, a war veteran employed by the bank, were shot down in cold blood without the slightest warning. Their two assailants escaped in an automobile driven by an accomplice. It was through this car that Diamond's arrest was brought about, after detectives had trailed him through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Toledo and Cleveland.

In the prisoner's pockets at the time of his arrest were found a loaded revolver and $2,200, mostly in $20 bills, the denomination of a large part of the money stolen. He had a great deal more than this when he left New York, the detectives said, but spent lavishly on his tour. In Philadelphia they said he stopped at the Hotel Lorraine under the name of "Schwartz," giving lavish entertainment to a chorus girl and boasting that he was a "stuck-up man."

The prisoner once served a term of six months in Connecticut for grand larceny, police said. His finger prints, they added, correspond with marks left in blood on the door handles of the car. Five witnesses to the crime identified his rogues gallery picture at police headquarters as that of one of the hold-upmen.

Diamond's mother, who collapsed when told of his arrest, had at the time of the five-year-old boy, was at one time one of the best known athletes in the Brooklyn high school.

W. B. Orr Hurt In Auto Mishap

News has been received here of injuries sustained a few days ago by W. B. Orr, formerly of this city but now lives in Macon, Ga., and who was out in an automobile accident. The following dispatch from Macon gives details of the affair:

MACON, Ga., Nov. 26.—W. B. Orr, of this city, was seriously injured Wednesday night in an automobile collision at Pio Nono and English avenue, when the car which he was driving crashed into the rear of a car that was standing without lights. Mr. Orr was taken to the Macon hospital.

Mr. Orr according to statements of bystanders, became blinded by the lights of an approaching automobile and drove into another car that was parked with no lights showing. The automobile without lights is said to belong to W. M. Hargrove.

Mr. Orr sustained severe bruises about the face and neck. Shortly after midnight he suffered a severe hemorrhage. Doctors expressed themselves confident that he will recover. Mr. Orr is the father of S. L. Orr, Macon jeweler, alderman and chairman of the police committee of the City Council.

Many Vessels Imprisoned In British Ports By Dense Fog; Traffic Paralyzed

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—The greater part of Britain was held in the grip of frost and fog over the week-end, tying up the ports, halting land traffic in some places and preventing the carrying out of many short programs. The fog was not severe, even for this country, but it was accompanied by a raw, clammy fog.

thing for the almshouse but that $20,000 would do more than provide a building. He enumerated some of the additional items of expense, which would naturally follow. He could not see any objection to the present almshouse quarters and opined that they were no different to the way in which most of the inmates had been accustomed to living. "Ninety per cent. of the people there are more comfortable than they ever have been in their lives," Col. Carrington said, expressing the belief that the whole project should be referred to the public welfare committee, that it look over the present situation and see if it could not spend part of the money in improving the present quarters. After the meeting was over, Col. Carrington was quoted as saying that the present almshouse and grounds could be made a beauty spot by proper expenditure of money there. Councilman Townes took immediate issue with Col. Carrington's view and told the council that it is no crime to be poor. The present location he contended, is bad in that it is surrounded by a colored community and that the people of Danville want something done for the indigent poor. He pointed out that the whole almshouse project had been hanging fire for four or five years.

Councilman Geoghegan then sought the privilege of the floor but was at first denied the right to express himself. Mr. Conway insisted on the vote matter being declared that the whole matter could be thrashed out at a later meeting. Mr. Geoghegan, however, insisted on being heard and appealed to the chair. Col. Carrington expressed regret but informed him that he could not proceed with his remarks under the rules. Councilman Fredway Gravelley, however, moved that Mr. Geoghegan be given the privilege of the floor and he was given the opportunity to speak though he was requested to be brief. Mr. Geoghegan said that it had been apparent to him for some time that certain gentlemen in the council were opposed to the new almshouse being built. He thought it was unfair to renew objections nine months after the task of providing a new poorhouse had been undertaken.

The council, he stated, would be made the laughing stock of the community if it took the action contemplated.

The vote was then taken on Mr. Townes' substitute motion, that the city purchasing agent be empowered to enter into a contract with the builder. Five voted for it and four against it. Those voting for it were: Messrs. Carter, Geoghegan, Harrison, Townes and Walton. Those voting against the motion were: Messrs. Conway, Gardner, Gravelley and Carrington.

The motion was first announced to have carried but the question of majority was immediately raised. Mr. Rabot was appealed to and at first ruled that a simple majority carried but later it was found that in view of the amount involved it would require two-thirds. The Townes' motion was then pronounced lost.

Mr. Conway's motion then was put and carried by a viva voce vote.

Rev. J. S. Taylor, president of the city home commission was present at today's proceedings. This afternoon hope had not been entirely lost by proponents of the new almshouse who felt that the motion was possible to erect a frame building on the river road site. In view of the vote cast and the line of contention—that the present quarters can be made to suit the indigent poor, the building of a modern home for luckless individuals is pronounced by age and who have outlived the normal channels of support seemed, to say the least, rather shaky.

No. 9—The Wildflower Waltz

BY ARTHUR MURRAY
Director, National Institute of Social Dancing.

The wildflower waltz was not misnamed when one takes into consideration the carefree manner and abandon which characterize this dance. The new waltz is lively, yet conservative; it does not tire one out as did the old-fashioned waltz. It is undoubtedly one of the most fascinating dances we have had in several seasons.

Here's how it is done:

MAN'S PART
Step forward on the left foot and hold the weight on that foot for three beats of the music. While the weight is on the left foot, swing the right foot in front of you.

Take a long step back on the right foot, holding the weight on it for three counts. While the weight is on the right foot, swing the left foot backward.

After mastering the first two paragraphs about the waltz, you are taking two forward waltz movements totaling six counts.

Repeat the entire step. Step forward on the left and swing the right forward. Then step backward on the right and swing the left backward.

Complete the step by taking two forward waltz movements.

Pennsy Governor Makes First Move to Lower Prices engaged in interstate anthracite trade that it authorize the Interstate Commerce Commission to deny cars to profiteers and that it investigate and publish the facts.

That the anthracite using States under a provision of the federal constitution agree upon the form of regulation "that will best work to the advantage of their people, and negotiate a treaty or compact to establish a joint commission to enforce it."

Governors of thirty States had been requested to attend and acceptances received assured the presence of delegates representing virtually half of them for the opening of the conference at 2:30 p. m. today.

Declaring "that the people are angry, and rightly so, over the long continued and steadily increasing actions of the anthracite monopoly, whose representatives had definitely declined to recommend that the industry shall clean its own house," Governor Pinchot added:

"The reason for so deep a public feeling is that the people know the anthracite business is a monopoly—greedy, relentless and defiant—whose purpose is to get out of the people the last cent of the traffic will bear."

The governor declared settlement of the coal strike involved an average increase in labor costs of sixty cents a ton but that operators had added more than that. He cited high dividends paid by coal companies in recent years.

The governor answered the criticisms of the governors of several other states that this state first should take certain steps with respect to the anthracite industry, such as a repeal of the law requiring certification of the 1923 western conference, coal

He declared Pennsylvania already had vigorously attacked the problem of rock and dirt in coal and that the effect had been strongly felt. No action, he said, was possible to effect royalties which were matters of private contract and most of which would continue in effect until December 30, 1928. The certification law, the governor termed "a just and proper law" which should not be repealed as it would open the mines to unscrupulous mining and would result either in stopping or reducing production, permanent injury to the productive capacity of the mines or a vast increase in accidents.

The anthracite tax, he said, amounted to one and one-half per cent. of the cost of coal at the mine or between 11 and 12 cents a ton on domestic sizes, and actual prices at the mine before and after the tax went into effect did not indicate that tax had been passed on to the consumer. He declared he was emphatically against its repeal.

He said that nine tenths of the hard coal produced in this state was consumed elsewhere and that as it was an interstate commodity the action of no one state could meet the situation.

"To paraphrase the language of the supreme court in the Kansas industrial court decision," he said, "the anthracite industry supplies an indispensable service and in the absence of regulation the people are subjected by it to exorbitant and arbitrary control. That being so, it is effected with public interest and maybe regulated. In that case Congress may authorize whatever body it may select to fix prices of anthracite coal in interstate commerce, establish uniform systems of accounts, examine books and records and make its findings known."

"The best legal opinion does not establish beyond controversy the right of the United States to fix prices, establish uniform accounts, examine books or require reports in the anthracite industry. But there is no doubt, whatever, that each state through its police power can do all of these things if it chooses. Whether the coming Congress can or cannot, does or does not give the consumer clean anthracite at reasonable prices, there is another necessary remedy. I refer to the treaty or compact between the states authorized by the federal legislation."

"If the anthracite using states will, under this constitutional provision, agree among themselves upon the form of regulations which will best work to the advantage of their people, a compact to establish a joint commission to enforce it will be both lawful and effective when approved by the Congress of the United States. Such a commission, pooling the powers of the states, concerned, could in co-operation with federal authorities over interstate commerce, completely regulate the whole industry from the mines to the consumers bin. We have here a powerful weapon altogether capable of securing justice for the consumer in all the anthracite using states."

Disputants advance claims to show that one or the other of the championship elevens has a better record, but in absence of any officially designated champion, the percentage record leaves the two elevens on a par.

U. of Virginia Divide Tactics

(By The Associated Press.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 26.—The University of Virginia's grid-iron warriors divided their tactics today in providing defense and offensive plays for the contest at Chapel Hill, on Thanksgiving Day with the University of North Carolina eleven. With only two days left before the teams will entrain at noon Wednesday for Durham, where it will spend the night and motor to Chapel Hill Thursday morning, Coach Earle Neale had his charges out early today in practicing defensive plays and later the team was put through a stiff workout in offensive tactics. The entire first string is expected to be in shape for the contest.

Ill. and Michigan Sharing Honors for West Championship

(By The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Illinois and Michigan, each with an unmarried season's record are sharing honors for the 1923 western conference football championship. The Wolverines are on top of the big ten for the second consecutive time, having divided honors with Iowa in 1922.

Disputants advance claims to show that one or the other of the championship elevens has a better record, but in absence of any officially designated champion, the percentage record leaves the two elevens on a par.

Urges Abstinence From Partisanship By the Democrats

Garrett Says This Advantage Will Not Tempt Party to Play Cheap Politics at Expense of People as Did Republicans.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Consideration of "mere temporary partisan advantage" will not tempt the Democratic members of Congress "to play the cheap or mean politics at the expense of the people as did the Republicans during 1919 and 1920," Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, declares in a statement urging abstinence from partisanship in dealing with the problem of taxation.

Mr. Garrett, who is expected to be re-elected Democratic leader in the House, excepts only "the present iniquitous high tariff" in his appeal for non-partisan consideration of the "twin question of revenue and finance." His statement, issued after a conference with Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, chairman of the Democratic national committee, emphasizes with reference to Secretary Mellon's proposals for tax reductions that "everybody, everywhere" favors reducing the normal taxes. The question of differentiating between earned and unearned incomes has always had the support of "all members" in principle, he says, but it has not been put into effect because of "Republican opposition and the extreme difficulty of its successful administration."

"The worst enemy of honest, equitable internal tax revision," Mr. Garrett asserts, "is the person who injects political or factional considerations which bear no relation to the single problem of scientific equitable taxation."

Student Is Found Murdered On Side of Road; Two Held

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—The police are unable to establish a motive for the slaying of Free Louis Tracy, 23, former University of Chicago student, found dead near the university here yesterday.

Tracy had been shot through the temple and his body apparently thrown from a speeding automobile, police said. Several blocks away was his hat. His watch and $41 in cash were in his pockets.

Daniel Murphy, who took Tracy part way home and William Ambrose, with whom the slain man is said to have had trouble recently were taken to police headquarters.

Murphy told of leaving Tracy a few blocks from his home where he had taken him in an automobile from a dance. Ambrose disclaimed any knowledge of the case.

According to Murphy, he dropped Tracy shortly after midnight. It was three hours later that his body was found by a passerby.

Ex-Service Man Gets Freeze Out In Civil Service

By GEORGE MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of Danville Bee.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—After a third trial to secure the office, Noah Markey, a Democrat, has been appointed Acting Postmaster at Beaver Dam, Hanover county, Va., a $1,700 a year job.

The first examination of applicants for this place was held July 5th, last year, and Elliott Satterwhite, a former service man, was the only one to qualify. His rating was $7.20 per cent. with an allowance of 5 per cent. for military service.

Satterwhite was not acceptable to the Republican leaders and he was ignored and a second examination requested. Satterwhite had been endorsed by the American Legion, it was said, and a number of prominent patrons of the office.

The second examination was held February, Satterwhite again came in first on the eligible list, and Noah Markey was the only other candidate. Both are Democrats and so both were rejected by the Republican leaders and a third examination was asked.

Satterwhite headed the list of eligibles for the third time as a result of the third examination; Raymond A. Talley was second and Noah Markey was third, this time. Others who took the third examination were Mrs. Camden McC. Moody and Leon Chisholm.

With three eligibles presented on the third examination, the Republican leaders were unable to ignore the eligible list as they had the two others on account of less than three eligibles being certified, and apparently when forced to a decision, choose Noah Markey, who, according to reports is a Democrat. The Republicans apparently wanted to appoint one of the applicants who was unable to make the eligible grade after three trials, and when forced to a decision choose what they considered the lesser of the three evils, Noah Markey.

"The worst enemy of honest, equitable internal tax revision," Mr. Garrett asserts, "is the person who injects political or factional considerations which bear no relation to the single problem of scientific equitable taxation."

Infant Child Is Victim of Flames

(Special to The Bee)
MARTINSVILLE, Va., Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell are mourning the loss of their three-year-old daughter who was burned to death a few days ago. Mrs. Howell had left the child momentarily and went into the yard. Hearing screams she ran back to find her small daughter in a light blaze. The injuries extended all over the body and the little girl died in the hospital within a few hours. It is assumed that the child's clothes caught fire from an open grate.

MRS. CONWAY BETTER
Mrs. L. B. Conway has been removed from Edmunds Hospital where she recently underwent an operation to her temporary home on Main street. Mrs. Conway has leased the home of C. D. Xwell next to Randolph-Macon Institute and they will live there until they build a new home on the site of the handsome old Colonial home which several days ago was completely destroyed by fire.

KING OF RUM RUNNERS HELD

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—"Kummy Bill" McCoy, whom government agents call the "King of the Rum Runners," appears before a U. S. Commissioner today with eight British seamen, crew of the Schooner Tomako, charged with smuggling liquor. The men, who surrendered yesterday after the coast guard cutter Seneca had fired twice across the Tomakos bow, had $100,000 in cash in their pockets and 200 cases of liquor in the hold. They will make their defense, McCoy says, on the fact that the ship was 0 1/2 miles from shore when captured.

McCoy, who is said to be under indictment for violation of the prohibition law and who has been sought for five months along the Atlantic coast from Maine to Florida, had $50,000. Government agents said this amount was received for four thousand cases of liquor already sold to American bootleggers. The cargo was taken on in the Bahamas.

ENGLAND TO PROTEST IF SHIP WAS OUTSIDE LIMIT

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—If the Schooner Tomako, seized by the American authorities off the New Jersey coast, is proved to be a British ship with her papers in order, the British government will probably lodge a formal protest to Washington against her seizure outside the three mile limit, it was said here today.

The British protest would be in order to keep the record clear on the issue of the pending final agreement on the rum running treaty permitting seizures outside that limit.

Henry Officers Make Big Hauls

(Special to The Bee)
MARTINSVILLE, Va., Nov. 26.—State and federal prohibition agents show no letting up in their vigilance and they have recently reported important capture. A large Studebaker touring car was captured a few days ago with 60 gallons of liquor on board. The seizure was made on Smith River bridge. Two men were arrested and they gave the names of Joe Williams and T. B. Morrison. Officers near Pigeonboro captured a Ford car with 60 gallons of liquor in it but the two occupants made their escape. Federal officers report the destruction of two copper illicit distilleries, one of these being 200 gallons' capacity and the other 100 gallons. Both plants were found near Chestnut Knob. Nobody was found at the stills but 100 gallons of beer was poured away.

Quake at Tokio Friday Was Only a "Weather Shock"

(By The Associated Press.)
TOKIO, Nov. 26.—The earthquake which shook Tokio Friday is explained by experts here as a "weather shock," such as are said to follow periods of inclement weather.

Despite many rumors that another big earthquake was expected Saturday, the day passed without any.

In rural schools only 35 per cent. of them have supervisors for physical education.

The ratio of males to females is higher for the farm population than it is for the total population except in three states.

WATCH YOUR FOOD SUPPLIES

By W. E. TELLING
Executive Committee, National Safety Council
Good food, well cooked, adds life. Poisonous food shatters and destroys life, sometimes slowly over a period of years and sometimes in the space of two hours.

Is your food storage and supply clean?

Clean kitchens and ice boxes, clean dishes for serving and cooking, clean crockery or porcelain dishes for storage, clean hands and clean habits in storing known poisons in safe places, well removed from contact with foods will give protection from food poisons.

Canned foods that explode air when opened are dangerous.

Save all the food you can by storing it in cool, safe places but never eat and doubtful food.

A dish of left-over food should represent a few cents to be saved but should also represent cheap insurance against harm when there is any doubt of its goodness.

Food producers, canneries, dairies and other sources of food distribution try their utmost to deliver food-stuffs into your home in a sanitary, healthful, appetizing condition. Can you afford to be one less bit careful about the vitamins eaten by yourself and your family? See that after your kitchen receives the eatables, they are safeguarded as much as they are before they come in.

Happily, food poisoning cases are rare. But when they do occur, remember they usually bring suffering and death upon every member of the family.

Henry County Officer Poisoned In Dire Straits at Hospital

(Special to The Bee)
MARTINSVILLE, Va., Nov. 26.—C. T. Hollandsworth, Henry county officer, remains in a serious condition here in a local hospital where he was brought several days ago after he had been taken ill while on duty.

The police officer who is unmarried and about 30 years of age, is totally blind and is paralyzed on one side. He is conscious, however, and believes that he was poisoned after eating some canned tomatoes not long before he was taken ill. Doctors do not accept this theory without some misgiving and are inclined to believe that Hollandsworth is suffering from the result of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Hollandsworth, after eating the tomatoes, became unconscious and was carried from Bassett to the hospital where his recovery is considered rather problematical.

It is recalled that the officer played a conspicuous part in the arrest of John Stone, of Bassett, who shot and killed George Frame, a Henry county officer and for which offense Stone is now serving a long penitentiary term. Hollandsworth was elected to fill the position made vacant through the assassination of the officer.

During 1921 approximately $15,000,000 was spent throughout the nation for physical education in schools. The doors of St. Peter's at Rome are made of cypress and have lasted 1100 years.

Jack Crum Cleared Of Killing Maynard

(Special to The Bee)
ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Nov. 26.—Jack Crum who four months ago shot and killed Maynard Young has been acquitted of a charge of homicide by a jury in the county circuit court here. Crum pleaded self defense. The testimony of several witnesses revealed that Young went to Crum's home in the latter's absence, insulted Mrs. Crum and finally drove her and her children out of their own home. Crum returned to find the intruder in possession and lost no time in ordering him away. Young resented this and would not go. A quarrel began and terminated in a fight, during the course of which Crum seized a shot gun and shot Young dead, claiming the act was in defense of his own life.

Here's great fun for children—a toy grocery store that's the real thing you ever saw

Remember how much fun you had playing store when you were a child? But the chances are you didn't have a real toy store with counters in it and a full set of miniature packages that can be taken down from the shelves to be sold. There is a world of fun in this new toy grocery store we have made for the children—it's educational too.

Perhaps you already use Libby's Milk, the milk that good cooks use. If not, then this is your opportunity to try it—to learn how wonderfully it enriches foods—and to get the toy store for the children at the same time by saving the labels from Libby's Milk cans.

FAKE OIL SCHEMERS WORKED DUPES REPEATEDLY

The AMAZING STORY of
"HOG CREEK" CARRUTH

FOREWORD This is a story that is old, but that will always be new. It is a story of a great achievement. It is the story of a long battle against heavy odds. It is the story of how a man won through, after fighting obstacles that would have proved unconquerable barriers for most men. It is a story similar to that of Edison, of Lincoln, of Henry Ford, of Roosevelt. This is the story of a man who made good, who reaped a fortune not for himself alone, but for many others. It is the story of "Hog Creek" Carruth.

ABOVE IS A SPECIMEN OF PROMOTIONAL LITERATURE BROADCAST BY "HOG CREEK" CARRUTH NOW SERVING A PRISON TERM IN CONNECTION WITH FAKE OIL STOCK PROMOTIONS. BELOW IS A SCENE TAKEN AT A MEETING HELD IN A FT. WORTH CIVIC HALL.

SAID JUDGE KILLITS:

"At last you have reached a point where you can't bounce anybody. You have come to a mountain and reached a latitude both of which are beyond you. First in history we had Ananias, then Machiavelli, and the twentieth century produced Dr. Frederick A. Cook."

"This deal of yours was so damnably crooked that I know the lawyers who defended you did so with their hands behind their backs. It smells to heaven."

"Every penny you took in was robbed from widows and orphans from invalids, from children or from people in the depth of poverty. It seems to me you would be haunted at night."

Thus did Federal Judge John M. Killits denounce Dr. Cook in Ft. Worth, as he sentenced him to 15 years imprisonment, following conviction in the gigantic oil fraud cases.

Besides Cook, 13 other men, his associates, were also found guilty and given fines and prison terms. More trials are to follow with more startling testimony.

By ROY J. GIBBONS
FT. WORTH, Tex., Nov. 26.—Your crooked oil promoter is pre-eminently a keen psychologist.

The Niagara of nickels which poured in on him was the result of his thorough understanding of human nature.

Running a battery of presses and stock certificate printing machines, he was able to strike incessantly at likely prospects and catch them at an unguarded moment.

A prospect might withstand the tempting bait held out to him for an entire year, but sooner or later he would succumb, so the records show, and like the rest, he was dubbed a "sucker" who sent good money rolling in on top of bad, in response to the magic cry of:

Oil!
Guaranteed Cushters!
Five hundred per cent. dividends.
Pots of gold!

The crooked promoter would conjure with anything as an advertising medium.

Family names, graveyards, divining rods, "straight-from-the-shoulder" talks—anything and everything he used as bait for gullible victims.

Take the case of "Hog Creek" J. W. Carruth, now serving a one-year sentence at Leavenworth penitentiary.

Carruth started out in life as a barber.

He made his acquaintance at the start of the oil boom.

He so "sold" the town on his plans to form an oil company, that he was permitted to use a civic auditorium.

There he gave rosy promises to an enraptured local audience.

All told, Carruth garnered something like $500,000 in two ventures and sunk two wells—both of them coming in dry.

Got $600,000
If this man had actually had the interests of his stockholders at heart he could have divided among them the balance on hand when the two oil drilling ventures "blew up."

Instead he adopted a different means. He sold the list of stockholders' names—sucker lists they were called—to another concern which was in the business of merging defunct oil ventures.

count. The German government maintains that it is not able to pay anything on the reparations account so as to permit the stabilization of the country's currency and a resumption of active production throughout the nation. The expense was paid on the reparations account, would be a heavier load than the government could undertake. Payment for coal at present is also out of the question.

PLENTY OF FISH
NEAR ICELAND

(By The Associated Press.)
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 24.—We all have heard about the Iceland of old, the land of the sagas and eddas and of mighty warriors, but very few know about modern Iceland, though the tale of her recent development and the great plans for harnessing her great natural powers and resources make just as interesting reading as those old sagas.

Iceland's minister to Denmark, Sveinn Bjornsson, tells of the wonderful resources of his country. Some of these are highly developed, others are barely tapped, and some have not been touched at all. Among the former are the fishing grounds, the richest in the world. Six weeks recently produced an export surplus of 45,000,000 pounds of herring. The Iceland herring contains a higher percentage of fat than any other herring and is much sought after, particularly in the Scandinavian countries.

Only the finest herring are exported, and before export are subject to close inspection by government agents. A small quantity goes to the United States.

The cod fishery is, however, the greatest industry of Iceland. During 1921 more than 27,500 tons of dried and salted cod were exported, chiefly to Great Britain and the Mediterranean countries.

The export trade of Iceland was in danger of being seriously interfered with through the refusal of Spain and Portugal to allow imports of Icelandic fish as long as the import into Iceland of Spanish and Portuguese wines was barred by the Icelandic Prohibition Act, but now a working agreement has been arrived at between Spain and Portugal have both signed trade agreements with Iceland in the "most favored nation" form.

For the Icelandic farmers, salted lamb and sheep make the biggest export article. Denmark and Norway are the chief markets for this commodity, which is used in provisioning ships. The quality of Icelandic lamb and sheep is excellent, the natural consequence of the wonderful grazing grounds in the mountains where the animals browse all the summer.

"SUE DEAR" TONIGHT.
Musical Show at the Majestic Offers Real Comedy and Dancing

For those who like real comedy, good music and dancing this "Sue Dear," the engagement of the dainty musical comedy, "Sue Dear," at the Majestic theatre on Monday, November 26th, should be a treat.

"Sue Dear" ran more than four months at the Times Square Theatre, New York, and then played some of the larger cities in other parts of the East and West. Everywhere it was found to be a pleasing surprise to this city with a carefully selected cast of Broadway favorites, all of whom are youthful and experts in their several lines.

The story of "Sue Dear" is that of a girl who gets into the home of a family of wealth and standing to deliver some pearls for a jeweler. She is induced to remain for a dance, taking the place of a guest from another city, who finds it impossible to get there. The young son of the family is a woman-hater, or thinks he is, and "Sue Dear" might be expected, converts him. There is a touch of human nature running all through the play which affords the audience the opportunity to cry as well as laugh.

Side Dudley, humorist of the New York Evening World, wrote the book and lyrics, while the music is by Frank H. Grey.

The cast is headed by Eleanor Bennett who has the title role. Others who have important parts are Leona Woodworth, George Thom, Ethel Clark, Jay Elwood, Lillian Shreve, John Hendricks, Elliott Roth, Joe Edson and Julia Parker. There is, in addition, a chorus of fourteen dancing girls, all selected because of their youth, beauty and ability to dance. Incidentally an important feature of the performance is the dancing. As the Globe critic said when the piece opened in New York: "Sue Dear" has a wealth of virtues and one of the greatest of these is the dancing. It is about the peppiest musical comedy Broadway has seen this season."

Prices 50 cents to $2.50. Seat sale now.

PINCHOT'S PLAN IS NOT LAWFUL

(By The Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—Governor Pinchot's suggestion that anthracite operators refuse to sell to retailers who charge more than a fair price to the consumer is unlawful and will not be accepted, Samuel D. Warriner, spokesman for the operators in their negotiations last summer with the mine workers, declared last night in a letter to the governor.

The governor's suggestion was made at a recent conference with hard coal operators called in an effort to find a way to reduce the retail cost of anthracite.

"You assumed to furnish a solution," Mr. Warriner said in his letter, and "stated to us that your proposals must be accepted or you would attack the industry. You are now carrying out that threatened attack because of our inability to accept a plan which is both impracticable and unlawful."

Mr. Warriner said the operators stood ready to fully co-operate with the state in any "lawful and practicable" plan for the solution of the problem.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—adv.

HANNA SONS ARE ORDERED TO GIVE AN ACCOUNTING

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The three sons of the late Dan R. Hanna, millionaire publisher of Cleveland, Ohio, were directed to file an accounting of their work as executors of his estate, by Surrogate Slater today, acting on motion of June Avis Evans, an actress. The accounting must be filed by December 15, the court ruled.

Miss Evans has sued the executors to compel payment of $1,250 monthly for life under a contract which he said Mr. Hanna entered into in consideration that she break off her engagement to him.

GERMANY HAS REFUSED PLAN

(Copyright, 1923, by Chicago Tribune)
BERLIN, Nov. 24.—The German government has refused to accept the conditions which General Degoutte, commander of the French forces in the occupied region, laid down to industry in the Ruhr for an agreement which meant resumption of relations with the French, with the Ruhr magnates reopening their closed down plants.

The conditions were:
1.—Assumption of control by the French railway administration of the Rhineland and Ruhr railways, all income to be paid on the reparations account and the expenses to be contributed by the German government.

2.—A similar control for shipping on the Rhine and on canals.

3.—Payment by the government for coal deliveries and for the coal tax, to be charged on the reparations ac-

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 24.—John Quincy Adams Thorp, under sentence to life imprisonment for the murder of Sheriff Butler, of Allegheny county, will not be pardoned by Governor E. Lee Trinkle, the executive declared today in a letter to C. Victor Werne, local attorney interested in the case. The governor said that inasmuch as the trial judge and other court and county officials vigorously opposed executive clemency and the state supreme court of appeals declined to intervene he felt compelled to deny the petition of several prominent Richmond ministers, lawyers and business men. The petition for executive clemency declared Thorp did not fire until he had been wounded by the sheriff, who with a party of officers was making a raid on his home in search of whiskey.

ESCH-CUMMINS LAW HASN'T A GUARANTEE

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 24.—A statement pointing out that there is no guarantee section in the Esch-Cummins act, despite assertions by public speakers and resolutions of conventions specifically naming such an alleged section, has been issued by L. V. Baldwin, president of the Missouri Pacific system.

"Contrary to reports and statements from some quarters, there is no guarantee section in the Esch-Cummins act," he said. "In the Transportation act, congress authorized the Interstate Commerce Commission to set up a schedule of rates which would permit railroads to earn six per cent. on the valuation of their property, which per cent, pursuant to the law, has since been reduced by the commission to five and three-quarters per cent. During 1923, the net operating income of all railroads is still running short of the five and three-quarters per cent."

"Section 15-A, which is commonly referred to as a guarantee section, is a clause which merely states that the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the exercise of its power, shall prescribe just and reasonable rates which will, under honest, efficient and economical management, provide as nearly as possible a fair return upon the aggregate value of the railway property of the transportation systems engaged in rendering transportation service."

"Railroads have failed for the last three years to earn a return near the percentage of net profits that has been fixed as a fair return. If the act provided a guarantee, the carriers would be entitled to a recompense at the hands of the government. Nevertheless, the carriers have taken their losses and striven with additional energy to operate the properties so efficiently and so economically as to earn a return with existing rates."

"Repeated reference to this so-called guarantee not only is misleading but also is most unfair to the railroads. I understand that such reference is made in nearly all cases by reporters and editors who accept, without question, the statements made by speakers and in resolutions. Many speakers, who are appealing to a popular prejudice, apparently find it to their advantage to misstate or misrepresent the facts."

WILSON SCORED FOR STATEMENT

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
ROME, Nov. 24.—Former President Wilson's assertion that France and Italy have made a scrap of the treaty of Versailles was the subject of hot comment recently in political circles in Rome and members of the chamber of deputies and the senate were frank in expressions of their opinions. Sen. Duran, a fascist deputy from Istria, said:

"It is only for the good of America and Europe we hope that Mr. Wilson will keep silent and not try to re-enter the world's political scene. We regret that he speaks about the treaty of Versailles for he was largely responsible for everything that was bad in it."

Senator Ciprico asserted that no one has made the treaty a scrap of paper.

"The treaty was so badly written that it is subject to many contradictory interpretations," he said. "As for Italy it was due especially to Mr. Wilson's obstinate attitude towards us that we received very little, and so had little reason to hold to the treaty. But on the other hand we have done nothing to minimize its value."

Gen. Caglieri, who is also a senator, is known here as one of the greatest generals of the war said:

"I regret to hear Mr. Wilson's accusations. It might be pointed out that Mr. Wilson made a scrap of the treaty of Versailles while the treaty of Versailles was being written."

NATIONAL STORM BREAKS IN CRAIG CASE

By ALEXANDER HERMAN
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Out of a quarrel of two strong-willed men has broken a storm that is casting a heavy shadow over next year's presidential outcome. Yet the men involved are neither mentioned as possibilities, nor as directors of the boom of any candidates.

Tilley who started the controversy; Charles L. Craig, city comptroller of New York, and Federal Judge Julius M. Mayer.

They who are worried about its result are the politicians who are trying to direct the destinies of the major political parties.

But the persons most concerned are that an order of a federal judge in a court of equity should stand between the public and the truth under such circumstances.

Craig as the financial guardian of 6,000,000 New Yorkers, criticized the federal judge during a heated controversy about a receivership of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company.

In a letter to Public Service Commissioner Lewis Nixon he wrote:

"It seems to me a monstrous thing that an order of a federal judge in a court of equity should stand between the public and the truth under such circumstances."

Federal Judge Mayer construed this as a reflection on the court. He had Craig haled before him. After a long hearing he adjudged him guilty of contempt.

Then began a battle in the courts that lasted for four years.

Craig appealed. He secured a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Martin T. Manton. But the United States attorney appealed to the Circuit Court which sustained Judge Mayer, holding that a lower court had no right to grant writs of habeas corpus in such cases.

Finally the case came up before the Supreme Court, and there, in the court of final resort, Craig lost out.

Then the storm broke. Former enemies of Craig came out to defend him, newspapers that had rarely ever sided with him took up his cause, jurists and lawyers of note rallied to his support.

Some of them advocate the passage of an act by Congress to prevent Craig's commitment. Some want Judge Mayer to relent. Others look for a way out by presidential pardon.

But Craig himself isn't very hopeful. He is ready to spend his Christmas in the Essex county (N. J.) jail, where federal prisoners from these parts are held for short terms.

His wife is arranging to rent an apartment near the jail, so that she will be able to be with him every day.

Meanwhile political leaders are worried. If Coolidge pardons Craig it may be interpreted by some as a slap at the federal courts. If Coolidge doesn't pardon him, some fear that New York will be lost to the Republicans during the next campaign.

Representative F. H. La Guardia, who is normally a political foe of Craig, has announced that he will introduce a bill into Congress on Dec. 3 to prevent Craig's going to jail.

"If under the present law it becomes impossible for a municipal official in the course of his official duties to communicate frankly and fully on matters pertaining to the city,"

CUT OFF 'PHONE SERVICE WHEN THEY GOT HUFFY

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
PARIS, Nov. 24.—A two days suspension of telephone service is a punishment that the ministry of posts and telegraphs is handing out when telephone subscribers get huffy with operators.

A hair-dressing shop near the opera protested to the government because its service was out of order for forty-eight hours due to the manager scolding an operator.

JUDGE JULIUS M. MAYER

to another official, it is time that we have legislation protecting public officials," he says.

Hope that Judge Mayer himself might reconsider is gone. And Craig won't recant.

"A federal judge's power, to halt before himself and to jail any municipal officer who incurs his ill-will," says Craig, "offers entirely too much opportunity for abuse of power to be tolerated by the American people."

"The possession of such power is tantamount to the suppression of proper criticism and a free press. It is calculated to intimidate and put in jeopardy of jail public-spirited citizens, reporters, editorial writers and all others whose duty it is to fairly present and freely comment upon matters of public concern."

WILSON SCORED FOR STATEMENT
The act for which the comptroller is to be imprisoned involved no moral offense. It was committed in the course of what Craig undoubtedly believed to be public service.—New York Herald.

If the incarceration of the comptroller results in a new and more precise definition of "contempt of court," as to which even the justices of the Supreme Court are in some doubt, he will consider his own suffering not to have been in vain.—Evening Telegram.

The fact remains that the punishment of Craig, if justified in law, is not justified in common sense.—Evening Post.

This is not the Congo; judges are not savage chiefs, with special rights or special dignity. They are citizens chosen and paid to do a certain work, perfectly respectable while they do it well, not in the least entitled to protection from criticism, except when such criticism would actually obstruct the course of justice.—Evening Journal.

What is to be done about the Craig case as it stands? First, President Coolidge should pardon Mr. Craig before he has to spend one day, one hour, one minute in jail. Second, Congress should relieve the Supreme

MRS. DELPORTE HELD FOR DEATH OF LAD

ASHEVILLE, Nov. 24.—Mrs. J. A. Delporte was held in $500 bond here yesterday on a charge of manslaughter as a result of the death of Mark McMan, 10 year old. The boy died of injuries sustained when he was struck by automobile driven by Mrs. Delporte.

LLOYD GEORGE PATCHES UP DIFFERENCES WITH ASQUITH AFTER SEVEN YEARS

LONDON, Nov. 24.—What from the Englishmen's viewpoint was the most arresting feature thus far of the present election campaign occurred tonight when a public formal reconciliation between Herbert Asquith and David Lloyd George after about seven years' estrangement, was staged at Paisley, where the two former premiers, to every accompaniment of liberal enthusiasm, appeared to speak on the same platform, in Mr. Asquith's constituency.

Premier Baldwin, it was remarked by those present, could scarcely have foreseen what but a few days ago seemed such an improbable event, when he decided to dissolve Parliament and appeal to the country. The town hall, scene of the meeting, holds 3,000 persons but fully 10,000 struggled for admission. The hall was uncomfortably crowded, but the discomfort did not prevent the gathering from giving the two statesmen tremendous ovations. In introducing the speakers, the chairman said the marriage of the liberals had been celebrated in London, but the honeymoon was to be spent in Scotland.

Mr. Asquith, rising to his feet first, spoke rather briefly, remarking that he shared to the full the impatience of his constituents in awaiting Mr. Lloyd George's address.

"In the presence of my right honorable friend and colleague," he added, "I may say that his presence here is conclusive and sincere evidence that we are all one."

Mr. Lloyd George, replying after a storm of cheers and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," said: "It has been a deep and sincere grief to me that we ever separated. It is a real and sincere joy to me to find ourselves on the same platform and side by side on the same battle."

"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," said: "It has been a deep and sincere grief to me that we ever separated. It is a real and sincere joy to me to find ourselves on the same platform and side by side on the same battle."

Mr. Lloyd George had spoken earlier in the day at Glasgow, making his theme a severe attack on the Baldwin policy of the government.

by the Americans. This question of the furling of the debt is becoming rather a favorite subject for Mr. Baldwin's opponents, who elaborate on the theme that through it the British taxpayer is paying the American's income tax, this being a reference to the report of the probable reduction in the amount of that tax in the United States.

The end of the first week of the electioneering finds the Liberal-Labor parties if anything less confident, while the Conservatives are much more optimistic over their chances than they were on entering the campaign. This change of feeling is due to the now acknowledged fact that there is not the slightest chance of any agreement between the two free trade parties, Liberal and Labor, for the allocation of seats to avoid split votes and a three-cornered contest.

The Liberal organizers made a number of tentative overtures for a concordat which have all been rejected by the Laborites and the more frank among the Liberal newspapers are beginning sorrowfully to envisage the possibility of a repitition of last general election and a victory for the Conservatives of a minority vote of the electorate.

FIGURES SHOW GERMANY LEADS WORLD IN POTATO PRODUCTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Nobody knows just how many potatoes are grown in the world yearly, but the Department of Agriculture estimates more than 5,000,000,000 bushels were harvested last year, exclusive of Russia and the many small patches brown in gardens for home use the world over.

Northwestern Europe is the world's greatest potato producing region because of favorable soil and climatic conditions and its people utilize the potato to a greater extent in their diet, in the manufacture of alcohol, and as feed for livestock than in other sections of the world. Germany is the world's largest producer of potatoes, producing 1,494,181,000 bushels last year. The United States produced 431,185,000 bushels last year.

VENAL HUSBANDS HELP WOMEN TO GAIN ACCESS

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The many mercenary "bridegrooms" who are willing to marry alien women for a financial consideration in order to allow them to enter the country, is providing the Home Office with a difficult problem.

Marriage to Britons makes these women British citizens, which is the goal at which they aim. The arrangement is generally that the bridegroom lends his name for the ceremony, receiving from $50.00 to $75.00 for his trouble. The couple part at the registry doors, and the wife thereafter free to travel any place in Great Britain or the dominions without further question.

The Home Office has been able to intervene in many cases, however, where the bridegrooms have overstepped their legal allowance and married in some instances as many as ten women. In these cases the women have been deported and the man sent to prison for bigamy.

The problem of the nationality of the wife was discussed several times during the last session of Parliament and will come before the Dominion's conference now meeting in London. Here it is expected a final decision will be made as to whether the wife retains her nationality, or takes that of her husband. If the former, the British government will take steps to have a bill passed allowing all married women to adopt English nationality at once, but prohibiting others from assuming it without going through the usual legal course.

During the year 1921 there were approximately $60 of these "convenient" marriages.

MULLERAND SEEKS NEW DUTIES

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Nov. 24.—M. Millerand president of France, wants the duties of his office increased. He is an active and a prodigious worker, and his present duties, restricted mainly to receiving official visits, inaugurating movements, laying corner stones, welcoming newly appointed diplomats and pardoning convicts, leave him so much time on his hands that he is eager to take on further responsibilities.

Why I insist on getting flour in ROPAX Sanitary Rope Paper Sacks

By Mrs. J. E. H., an experienced housewife of Richmond, Va.

IN THE first place, it may seem like a flour sack is a mighty small matter, but I think that is why it is so important for you to read about. You see what I mean? If you knew all about it there would be no need of my telling you, would there?

FLOUR IS DAILY FOOD

It's like this: Flour is the most important thing in your pantry and in my pantry. With it we make bread, cake, pies, muffins, and we use it for dumplings, gravy, and goodness knows what else. An empty flour bin will quickly convince you of the importance of flour.

HANDLED MANY TIMES

After you get your flour in the kitchen you keep it clean and safe; but have you any idea of the number of people who handle it, and the many different places in which it is put from the time it leaves the mill until the grocer brings it to your door?

DANGER OF DIRT

The flour can't help but sift through ordinary bags, and when flour sifts out, dirt and impurities can't help but sift in. First off, that is the real reason why I won't accept a bag of flour from my grocer unless it is in ROPAX—the Sanitary Rope Paper Sacks. The flour cannot sift through and dirt cannot sift in.

TOUGH PAPER

That rope paper is the toughest paper I have ever seen. It doesn't seem possible that it could be really paper, but it is. It's made of Manila rope, unwrapped and made into a fiber.

ODOR AND WATER PROOF

It's water proof. My grocer left a bag

WHEN they asked me to write for the papers I said, "Good gracious! I am not a writer, I'm a housewife." When they told me that was the reason they asked me I finally agreed to write frankly about the Sanitary Rope Paper Sacks just as though you and I were chatting together.

Mrs. J. E. H.

at my back door, right out in a rain storm once and the flour wasn't even damp! It's odor proof. I have left my flour in ROPAX near kerosene, cabbages and onions without its absorbing even a hint of the odor.

THEY OUGHT TO COST MORE BUT THEY COST LESS

Isn't it funny how so many improvements are really less expensive than the old ways? You would think, after what I have said about ROPAX, that the price would be high; but it is an absolute fact that you not only get more flour in the sack because none is lost, but each and every sack costs you less money.

ASK YOUR GROCER

Don't take my word for it. The next time you order flour tell your grocer you want it in ROPAX—Sanitary Rope Paper Sacks. Don't say "paper," say "ROPAX." If he hasn't it, he will get it.

I don't know whether I have convinced you or not, but for the sake of your family's health, your convenience and your pocketbook, ask for ROPAX anyway.

FREE SHOPPING BAG

If you will write me, I will send you, free of charge, a convenient shopping bag made of the sanitary rope paper. This will give you a chance to see for yourself the wonderful strength of rope paper; to say nothing of the fact that the shopping bag itself will be useful in dozens of different ways. Simply address me as Mrs. J. E. H., 1121 Bank Street, Richmond, Va.

McDERMOTT, SICK FOR YEARS, MAY BE ABLE TO PLAY AGAIN

One of the greatest golf professionals in the game ever known may be back in active competition next summer after an enforced absence of nearly 10 years.

Young Johnny McDermott won the national open championship in 1911 and repeated the following year. It was the first time the championship had been won twice in succession since Willie Anderson turned the trick years back. No player has done it since McDermott took ill shortly after his double-jointed success and has been laid up in a Pennsylvania hospital almost continuously since the first day of his misfortune.

Walter Hagen, McDermott's successor as the nation's leading home-bred, recently visited McDermott and found him in a surprisingly improved condition.

SALT'S FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEY

When Back Hurts Flush Your Kidneys as You Clean Your Bowels

Most folks forget that the kidney like the bowels, sometimes get stuck and clogged and need a flushing once in a while. Else we have backache, dull misery in the kidneys region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleepless nights, and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidney active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Take about four ounces of Dr. J. C. Salts from any good drug store. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act as they should. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine, so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

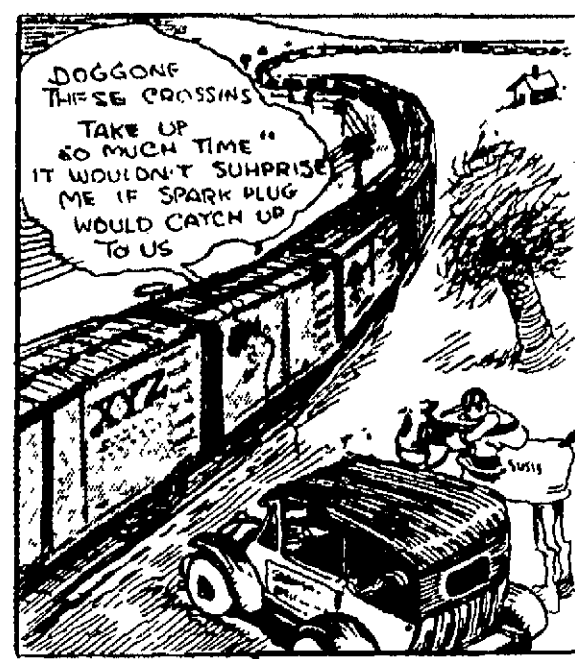

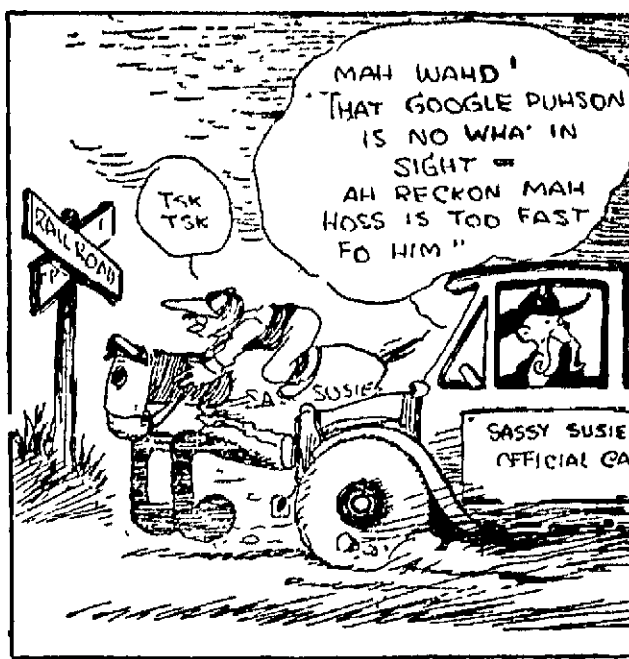

Dr. J. C. Salts is inexpensive; makes delightful effervescent lithia water which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Dr. J. C. Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SECOND GEORGE SISLER

Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals says he regards Southpaw Dyer of his club as a second George Sisler. Rickey developed Sisler direct from the University of Michigan, while he got Dyer from Rice Institute in Texas. Like Sisler, Dyer can hit as well as pitch. Already he has been used in the outfield because of his batting ability. He looks like a real find.

This Little World

By CASUAL STROLLER

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Greenwich Village is moving away from itself. The house of its traffic and the chatter of its sightseers has become too much for some of the old-timers who founded the village as an art colony. They are moving downtown to Bedford and Commerce streets. There, in what once were a paper box factory, a stable, and some very old homes, this group of artists, writers and actors expect to find the quiet they miss nearer Sheridan Square. So far they have been here from prying out-of-town-visitor-seeking-a-thrill - of Bohemian-NewYork. But they are wondering how long the spell can last.

The other afternoon while it was raining and everybody was stamping for cover, a small child—probably three years old—was being led through the dripping streets—clad in a bright pink knitted suit.

From a vantage point in a window it was as a rainbow in the storm.

"Yes, we have no whiskers," ought to be the latest popular song in New York.

Even the down-and-outers are clipping their beards. Unlike former days, when many a patriarch with a long white beard was to be found, department stores have to rely on artificial make-up for their Christmas store Santas.

A thorough search of the various stores in New York who feature Santa Claus for the children, reveals the fact that artificial Ears are worn are the only ones to be found.

Not a single Santa grows his own.

The last objects to catch the eye of the traveler as he rushes through the station to the train carrying him back to the hinterland is a series of terrible shops that are run on credit.

There are dainties for the almost forgotten women folks, toys for the kiddies, pipes, tobacco and ties for the men, books, perfume, candy and whatnot.

The appeal is arresting. It is difficult to resist these shops without halting to make a purchase.

Yesterday while awaiting the arrival of a friend a hard-boiled New Yorker bought a cap, two shirts, a pair of gloves and some handkerchiefs—none of which he needed.

The "workings" man in New York has been finally coated. He quit his job because there was not enough work to keep him steaming bus throughout his workable hours.

He was a dusky cook—and a good one. Too—in a neighborhood chophouse in which we often lunch. If pumpkin pies melted in your mouth! One-day substitute pie was served. Questions were asked.

"The cook left because there was not enough work to keep him busy," was the answer.

For many years These Bartholdi was "mammy" to many of the Broadway actors who have since become stars. She ran the Bartholdi Inn at 45th street and Broadway. Mack Sennett, D. W. Griffith, Charlie Chaplin, Dorothy Dalton, Joe Santley and many others had hall bedrooms in her place. She died a few years ago. But the extent of her fortune was unknown until it came out in a court action last week. The $6-a-week lodgings had made her a millionaire!

When it comes to speeding, the New York traffic courts don't take the dust of even the fastest of its offenders.

An East Side chauffeur who ran over to the court during his noon-day lunch to answer a summons for some traffic violation received a sentence of ten days in the workhouse. And his mother is waiting with the meal, for he said he would be back in a minute, or two?

The rock road to Dublin never was more bumpy than some streets in New York.

The non fist has its merits but not when backed by an iron head, as the governor of Oklahoma has learned.

SPECIAL BUSINESS SESSION OF THE D. C. CARRIED OVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Special business sessions of the annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy were carried over today and continued tonight.

Pledges for Confederate relief work in the various states and contributions for the Jefferson Davis monument to be erected in Kentucky were offered. Considerable discussion was devoted to plans for remodeling the Lee Chapel at Washington and Lee University but no decision was reached.

Actual work on the vessels by a force of only 22 men, all the armor, amounting to 770 tons, was removed and placed on the barbettes, 39 cuts were made "clear across" and the third decks were broken out and made ready for loading. Arrangements made by the Philadelphia yard for similar operations on the uncompleted battle cruisers United States and Constitution, it was said, are equally gratifying.

Bids will be opened Friday for the remaining six of the battleships scheduled for sale to be scrapped under the treaty. They include the Michigan, Minnesota and Kansas, at the Philadelphia yard; the Vermont and Nebraska at the Mare Island, California yard; and the Delaware, at the Boston yard.

GIRLS' ELEVENS KEPT OFF FIELD

(By The Associated Press)

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 25.—The question of football supremacy between rival teams of the girls' high school here probably will go undecided as a result of faculty edict forbidding a game in public for such honors. Plans had been made for a game next Monday but protest from mothers brought the faculty ruling. As a compromise it was agreed that the girls could play but the contestants for the championship decided that there would be no fun with the cheering spectators absent and the game has been called off.

REVIEW OF SATURDAY'S GAMES ON THE GRIDIRON

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Victory for Yale over Harvard, the first time since the resumption of gridiron play between the two after the war, entailing as it did the first Blue touchdown since Ted Coy went over in 1907, was a great relief to Yale men, but it was mingled with disappointment for Tad Jones.

Jones, Yale's head coach, published his memories of the game today, saying that he believed the 1923 Blue team to be one of the greatest in the university's history and he lost full title to his distinction on the wet and muddy gridiron, which forced it to abandon its long arranged plans and play Harvard's game.

Agreeing with experts who contended that the weather conditions favored Yale high and smarter team to the peace of Harvard eleven, Jones said: "All in all, the experience of Saturday may be reduced to a proposition, where the disadvantages of the weather nearly evened, and where one team, alert, eager and determined, made a great deal out of a bad situation."

While the merits of Yale's 13 to 0 victory were being debated, the Army and Navy teams returned to their respective homes from their scoreless tie at the Polo Grounds, the Cadets, who were "doped" to win were received with ancient rites by their colleagues, but the Middies, who counted out by the experts before the whistle blew, so detected that they slipped into Annapolis by the backdoor and the receiving committee had nothing to do.

Yale's unbroken string of eight victories, including North Carolina, Georgia, Bucknell, Brown, Army, Maryland, Princeton and Harvard, gave it the "big three" title, whether it will be the eastern champion in expert opinion—depends on the outcome of the struggle at Philadelphia Thanksgiving Day between Cornell and Pennsylvania.

Granting Gil Dobie a great red team some experts assert Cornell did not meet two strong teams in succession and win or lose against the Quakers, Yale is entitled to the palm.

The east was elated over Syracuse's 7 to 0 victory over Nebraska, some experts considering this as an omen for Notre Dame's defeat of Army and Princeton, as Nebraska conquered the Indiana eleven Notre Dame, however, rubbed it in by swamping Carnegie Tech, 26 to 0.

Cadets Defeated In Close Contest Here Saturday

D. M. I. Tiger squad lost to R. M. A. here Saturday by a score of 5 to 0 in one of the bitterest local games of the season. Both teams played a fighting game, quarter was not asked for or given, and despite a field slick in soft red mud a game was had from start to finish.

D. M. I. kicked off to R. M. A., and a few minutes later the cadets got possession of the ball on the thirty yard line through a Randolph Macon fumble. Less than six plays put the ball on Randolph Macon's six yard line, where the visitors sufficed and recovered the ball on downs on the one yard line. A punt carried the ball to the fifteen yard line, from which the Tigers again returned the ball on plays to the shadow of the goal only to lose it again.

The failure to make a touchdown might be attributed to one of several causes but never at any time did the Tiger eleven give up its fight and aggressiveness.

R. M. A. scored her lone touchdown in the last minutes of the second quarter when a Jacket back by means of a fake and splendid broken field run carried the ball over from the fifteen yard line. Try for goal from dropkick failed.

The second half opened with a bad kickoff by Randolph Macon which O. Biggs received and ran back to mid-field. Through the third and fourth periods the ball remained almost entirely within the twenty yard lines of the two elevens. A slippery field made fast work extremely difficult, and lines and ends were charging viciously into and smearing play after play.

Hooper, Tiger tackle, was tackling viciously and charging against the opposing line with a heavy drive, and O. Biggs at center and Klein on left end were taking everything within their reach.

Forward passing for both teams was dangerous as passes were both intercepted and broken up by the respective teams time after time. Saufley, the Tiger eleven gathered in passes from D. M. I. backs for considerable net gains however, and Garden broke up Jacket passes that seemed good or long gains Wilkinson in the cadet backfield gained heavily on several occasions, carrying the ball for long gains on at least seven different occasions. J. Gravely played a fighting defensive game throughout, and on more than one play carried the ball for substantial gains, and Acosta, recently brought up from the second string fought doggedly.

For R. M. A. Booth was by far the best man both offensively and defensively. He was hard to stop, got into play after play, and accounted for himself well generally. The speed of both elevens was badly handicapped by the condition of the field.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN ANNUAL TOBACCO SHOW

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 23—A National Tobacco Week is now being exploited to stimulate all branches of the industry and particularly the consuming public, during the dates of the second annual International Tobacco Industries Exposition, to be held January 28th to February 2nd at the First Regiment Armory, New York.

The value of specially designated weeks have already been conclusively proven in many lines of industry and trade and a Tobacco Week should prove no exception, in fact it is conceded that such a form of National exploitation and publicity will greatly benefit the entire industry.

The International Tobacco Industries Exposition in New York during that week is the hub from which the Tobacco Week exploitation will radiate and the exposition management is co-operating in making the movement national in scope.

A convention and banquet of the national board of salesmen's association is one of the events to be held in conjunction with the exposition during Tobacco Week. The committee in charge being the Board of Governors of the Tobacco Salesmen's Association, James J. O'Leary, chairman; William F. O'Brien, Edward J. Mulvaney and Harry L. Whipple, members; Emanuel M. Freeman, Jack A. Martin and Fred Schwabacher of Newark; A. Blumberg of Baltimore and Harry M. Kornitzer, Leo M. Lehman and Sidney J. Freeman of New York.

The Connecticut Valley Association, the Porto Rico government tobacco bureau and the Philippine government bureau will energetically participate. The National Order of Pipe Smokers, headed by Dr. Horace Grant of Atlanta, Ga., will hold a convention in New York during tobacco week at the exposition and other organizations, trade and consumers, will also participate.

The Tercentenary of the systematic cultivation of American tobacco, the 125th Birthday of the American cigar and an elaborate Tobacco Pageant are included in the program of the Committee, which has headquarters at the Hotel McAlpin.

An appeal to the entire industry to get behind Tobacco Week and the Tobacco Industries Exposition has been issued by the National Board of Tobacco Salesmen's Associations of the United States.

COMMITTEE ON STYLES REPORTS
(By The Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 24.—The style committee report of the National Cloak and Skirt Manufacturers' Association issued at the 21st annual convention held here today, is in part as follows:

The slender straight-line silhouette, developed on wrap-around lines, will retain its popularity in spring designs.

Coats and suits of sports identity will be an outstanding feature, novelty in wide variety playing a conspicuous part. There will be a wide use of blocked and striped fabrics, as well as plain, dull surfaced materials such as have been made popular by the camel's hair vogue.

Suits appear in large numbers than in several seasons past, the shorter jackets giving them a newer smartness. Manish tailored suits in worsteds and novelty fabrics will be popular with others in both one-piece and three-piece developments, and box or straight-line suits also in vogue. Coats of formal type are not neglected but they are overshadowed by models of sports character which have been adapted to general wear.

The definite tendency toward the wearing of shorter gresses will result in the outer wraps following this example. Newer coats of curtailed lengths are destined to replace the very long coats in vogue at this time.

WAKE FOREST WINS.
(By The Associated Press.)
ROLEIGH, N. C., Nov. 24.—A flurry of brilliant playing in the second quarter won for Wake Forest over North Carolina State at Riddick field this afternoon, 14 to 9. With the victory, a surprise to the most trustworthy observers, went the second statewide honors of the gridiron.

RITOLA IS VICTOR.
(By The Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—Wally Ritola, the Finnish-American of New York, today won the senior national A. A. U. cross-country championship for the second successive year, when he led a field of 42 runners over six and one-quarter miles course in Fairmount Park in 21 minutes 28 seconds. Meadowbrook Club Philadelphia won the team championship.

CLEMENCY FOR CRAIG SOUGHT
(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Coolidge will be asked on Monday by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, and others to grant executive clemency to Charles L. Craig, comptroller of New York City, who was sentenced to sixty days in jail for contempt of the federal district court of New York, and who recently lost an appeal to the supreme court.

Meantime, the sentencing of Craig became the subject of comment by a number of senators and representatives. Senator Johnson of California, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, declared the sentence was an "outrage" and added that if the courts could take such action there will be an end of boasted free speech in this country.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, declared the power of the courts to punish for contempt is being used "to prevent just and proper criticism of the actions of the courts and of the decisions of the court."

"The decisions of the courts and the actions of the courts," he added, "are just as thoroughly open to fair and just criticism as any other department of the government."

SIDE GODETS
When Gabrielle Chanel, Parisian designer, uses the circular movement on coats, she does it with side godets, which are usually of fur. A gold tissue coat, embroidered all over with a Parisian design, has this effect.

BIODED CAPES
A blouse black effect on winter capes is catching the eyes of many women these days. The front with apron flares is also in favor. Lustrous bolivias and brytopias, with plain or fur collars, are favorites.

"ORDER PUBLICATION"
Issued by order of the clerk of the Corporation Court of Danville, entered on the 10th day of November, 1923. VIRGINIA.

In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of Danville, on the 10th day of November, 1923.
Noah P. Spangler Plaintiff against Otelia A. Spangler, Defendant

Object of this suit is to obtain from the said Court a decree divorcing the plaintiff, Noah P. Spangler, a virgulo matrimonii from the said defendant, Otelia A. Spangler, on the grounds of adultery and desertion.

And an affidavit having been made and duly filed that the said defendant Otelia A. Spangler, is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, it is therefore ordered that she do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order once a week for four successive weeks in The Bee, a newspaper published in the City of Danville, Virginia, and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

NEW ART IS AN UNUSUAL STAGE SIGHT
(By Chicago Tribune Service.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Sunsets may be put out of business as a community affair if what Thomas Wilfred predicted today at the Blackstone Theatre comes true. It was an afternoon concert, not of strings, wood winds and brass, but of colors and twisting shapes of beauty that ascended, fell, seemed to come nearer and move farther away. It was Mr. Wilfred playing on the clavivium, his invention which is introducing light as an artistic medium.

The theatre was crowded. A large majority of Chicago's artist colony was in attendance.

Mr. Wilfred's program sounded like a very libre poem. He played five selections of his own composition: "Single Form Ascending," "Key, Green, White orange," "Double form, advancing, receding, rotating," "Key, green, blue white."

This was the way in which the solo and the accompaniment of his first opus were described.

"It is well that new art forms are received coldly, for those unworthy are killed," he declared. "But light as an art is coming to stay. It will take its part in drama; it will accompany music. The time will come when whole orchestras will be composed of light organs, and special theatres will be built for the enjoyment of their playing."

He was roundly applauded by a slightly puzzled, but wholly fascinated audience.

SLEEVELESS SWEATER
A clever looking sweater for cold days is a sleeveless form of the knit waist. It may be worn without a belt, or with a narrow leather belt, and slightly bloused. It buttons only part way up from the bottom.

AGENTS CHARGED WITH DEFAUDING EMIGRANTS
BUCHAREST, Nov. 23.—A sensation was caused here by the arrest of the Bucharest agents of the Baltic American Line. They were charged with selling to immigrants third class passages from Hamburg to New York as first class—charging first class rates and thereby making an additional profit of some $,000 lei on each ticket so sold.

It is stated that several hundred emigrants have been defrauded in this manner. As an agent of the line conducted the emigrants to Hamburg, they apparently had no means of learning what class of steamship accommodation they were booked under until actually boarding the vessel. The conductor who accompanied the last batch has been arrested by the Hamburg police, and is being turned over to the Roumanian authorities.

JOHN REVELS HANGED FOR KILLING TWO
(By The Associated Press.)
TAVARES, Fla., Nov. 23.—John Revels convicted of the murder of his wife and brother on December 9 last was hanged here this afternoon. When he was removed from the death cell Revels asked that his friends and relatives be allowed to hear his last statement, in which he declared he had no hatred in his heart and that he had made peace with his creator. His execution, he said, he desired to be a warning to others. At the time of the double homicide Revels was an escaped convict.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The stock market ushered in the new week with rising prices, initial buying power being most effective in the tobacco, sugar, oil and specialties. Schools, up one and National Supply, up half, established new 1923 tops while Cluett and Arizona dropped 3-4 to a new low record for the year. American Sugar and General Cigar advanced 1-2 and 1 point respectively. Rubber, rubber merchandise and chemicals also were well bought in the early dealings. Ralls were practically neglected. Tidewater Oil and Petroleum, and Refiners each advanced 3-4 points and Davison Chemical 3-4. 2-3-4 points were registered by such issues as Dupont, American Can, American Sugar Refining common and preferred, May De-Springfield, and Association Dry Goods. Maxwell A and U S Cast Iron Pipe each dropped a point and Baldwin yielded 3-8.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The Journal of Commerce published an interesting story on the building situation, saying that builders expect difficulty next year in regard to getting competent labor as well as material. Japan's building material requirements will be greater than was at first estimated by 177,000,000 dollars. An abnormal building construction program is outlined for 1924.

This is going to be unpleasant news for the bears. Notwithstanding high labor costs, factories will not be closed and work will not stop. And, by the time the needs of this nation have been satisfied, Europe will be ready to do something.

And another good item is the forecast in a morning paper that tax revision will be a non-partisan move suggested by both Republicans and Democrats.

The outlook is fine and I expect higher prices in the stock market.

Only at noon, as we are having a population of 10,000 or more more than 10,000 or more.

Brothers closed car will be a practical gift for the family.

STATE TROOPERS DESCEND IN FORCE ON STEELTON

HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—An army of state police raided the Allen section of Steelton tonight, arresting 14 alleged prohibition law violators and seizing one still and 600 gallons of liquor and wine. The arrested men were held in jail for a hearing.

As the state police force is far below its quota, the use of 90 men on a dry raid leaves all the rural districts of the state to be protected from bandits and other marauders by about 150 troopers.

Election Campaign In England Assumes Bitter Aspect Now

Three-Sornered Contests Are Numerous and Angry Spirit Prevails—Nominations to 615 Seats Being Made Today.

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—Nominations of candidates for the 615 seats in the House of Commons were being made today preparatory to the election of December 6. It was estimated beforehand that a record number would be named, with the conservatives in the majority, the liberals a good second and the laborites not far behind.

Three-cornered contests, which every individual candidate wishes to avoid, were expected to be rather numerous. Forecasts placed the number at more than 220, although it was supposed there might be several withdrawals at the last moment.

The electioneering campaign in the press and on the platform continues bitter and in some constituencies, the people are showing an angry spirit.

The conservatives say that several of their speakers have received notices threatening them with violence if they appear on the platforms in east London. Postmaster Evans was heavily guarded by police when he spoke in that district on Saturday.

Prime Minister Baldwin's debt settlement with the United States, which David Lloyd George used against him in a speech last Saturday, is doing service for the premier's opponents elsewhere. The Daily Express, one of Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers which is attacking Mr. Baldwin, ostensibly because his tariff proposals do not go far enough, says that what unpopularity the prime minister has achieved is almost entirely due to his financial settlement in Washington.

Lord Younger, born as Sir George Young, is accredited with having forced the resignation of the Lloyd George government is to have command of the conservative campaign. He has hurried to London from his country place to take the place of other party chiefs who will be forced to leave headquarters and fight for their respective seats in the constituencies.

ATTEMPT TO FORCE TEXAS COUNTY ROAD BUILD ROAD

(By The Associated Press.)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 24.—Mandamus proceedings have been ordered filed by the state highway department to compel Cheatham county to participate in the Memphis to Bristol, highway by building a link in the county as designated by the state department and approved by the federal road authorities. It is said that for seven years the Cheatham county project has been blocked by the county court, the refusing to participate in any program which did not carry the highway through Ashland City, the county seat which state highway officials say is not feasible.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Liquidation by holders of December was a leading feature Saturday. Today is first notice day. Some talk of between 5,000 and 10,000 notices but I think they will be taken care of.

Owing to the strong position of the actual, think any recession will be but temporary.

DAILY PUZZLE

The diagram contains five small pentagons, each at a point of the star. Each pentagon is divided into five sections, each of which contains a letter. Start at the top pentagon, and cross out a letter. Then follow the arrow to the next pentagon, and choose one of the letters it contains. Continue thus, five times around the six pentagons, until you have exhausted all the letters. If you cross out the proper letter each time, you will form a sentence of five words, which states a very obvious fact, which the pentagons themselves prove.

Yesterday's answer:
The fruit dealer had:
20 apples, at 4c each (80c).
5 oranges, at 6c each (30c).
Those quantities and prices solve the problem which stated that he had fifteen more apples than oranges, with oranges worth two cents apiece more than apples eighty cents worth of apples, and thirty cents worth of oranges being sold.

FIGHT DISEASES IN ISLAND DOMAIN

(By The Associated Press.)
MANILA, Nov. 24.—Eradication of all dangerous epidemics in the Philippine Islands, organization of an efficient commissioned personnel, and survey of malaria and hookworm infested areas preliminary to campaigns carried out with the co-operation of the Rockefeller Foundation, were the outstanding achievements of the insular health service during last year, according to the annual report of the director of health.

Invaluable knowledge as to the extent of malaria and hookworm was made available for health workers through the survey of conditions in several portions of the islands initiated by the Rockefeller Foundation. The report says, thus making it much easier for the service to draft plans for combating the two diseases.

The general birth rate during 1922 increased, while the death rate became lower. The better showing is attributed to the general improvement in sanitary conditions in most parts of the islands.

With reference to the anti-typhoid and smallpox vaccinations which are being given by health officers from the results obtained, there is evidence that immunity from typhoid and smallpox on the part of a large number of the people during 1922 was due to inoculations.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The activity and excitement of the earlier week were followed by a quiet market in cotton here today. Good part of the business was attributed to the further evening up of local cotton. Monday and fluctuations were rather irregular. The opening was barely steady at an advance of 10 points on December, but generally even to sixteen points lower in response to disappointment from Liverpool cables. Houses with Liverpool connections were buyers here, however, while the trade in continued reports of a better trade in Manchester and the local market held fairly steady around 35.30 for December and 35.05 for March or about 8 to 13 points net lower.

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

Thomson & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Some people are only interested in the next point up or down. Some are interested in the trend and in the ultimate result. The momentary fluctuations cannot be foreseen, it is a guessing contest. The man who is the West or the South can guess it just as well as the man right here. But the real trend is the result of conditions and this calls for close study and impartial judgment.

I want to quote to you from an editorial in the New York Times, headed: "Prosperity Back Logs." A leading authority tells President Coolidge there is need for eight billions worth of new buildings. At almost the time the Chamber of Commerce committee reports that the railway traffic is growing at such a rate that the railways should spend eight billions in ten years.

Incidentally, I want to mention the fact that a two billion dollar railway, told me that he is placing orders today for equipment that was thought unnecessary sixty days ago.

Be prepared to take advantage of any reaction to bus stocks.

And Plenty of It

A critic went by request to hear a certain politician make a speech.

"Well," said the politician, after he'd got through—"well, how was it?"

"Sound—very sound," said the critic.

"Yes," said the politician, and then hungry for more, he leaned and added, "Sound—and what else?"

"Nothing else," said the critic.

New Paris Fashions

Suit Only Women of Slender Symmetry

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The official winter style openings are now a thing of the past, and it would seem that the new dress lines put all but slim women at a disadvantage; a veritable cult of slimmness has been developed. While there is the greatest variety in the matter of detail, and one is allowed the circular or the plain, the fundamental principle of the "straight line" remains supreme.

For street and travel wear the classic tailleur has the call, and so many women have remained faithful to it despite the changing times, that the great textile manufacturers of northern France are now creating fabrics designed especially for it.

The kasha, marokkain and velours de Smyrne, particularly the latter, are the materials used by most of the arisan dressmakers for tailors and coats. The velours de Smyrne, coming in plaids and stripes, with a soft, velvety surface and the sturdy qualities of wool, is the most popular fabric among the fashionable frequenters of the Bois de Boulogne and the Champs Elysees; soft dark green being the color most in demand.

Slimness is the keynote. Button or braid trimmed, or without adornment, these garments for morning and street wear all retain a snug, exact fit which is causing despair among women who admit they are somewhat plump. Slim women, on the other hand, have no fault to find.

As a rule the coats of the 1924 tailors are longer than they have been for several seasons. In many cases the skirt is cut in a straight line, also take the simple, straight lines, and are often the wrap-around variety, extremely smart and very popular.

Longchamp, with buttons for trimming and button holes of a light leather. A dull blue leather belt completes the rather striking ensemble.

Models made of knitted goods, incorporating into the tric-tric tailors all the fashionable features of the cloth article were also ushered in with the fall of autumn. Some of these knitted suits have borders woven into them which give the same effect as embroidery.

But whether made of velvet, cloth or knitted goods, the tailors made suits of the 1924 season, with their straight lines and snug fitting cut, conspire to make the coming months a period of despair for women who are plump.

French Shy at English Coal

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 24.—When the people of Paris, during the cold weather last winter, used English hard coal in stoves to heat their apartments, they began to notice explosions in the burners that occasionally did serious damage. The trouble was ascribed to gas generated by the burning coal.

Investigations have since proved this was not the cause of the trouble. It is now declared that the English miners, in getting out hard coal, used explosives which sometimes did not always all explode. Small fragments remained in the coal, and brought disaster to not a few domestic heating plants in the French capital.

The California raisin crop for this year will amount to 275,000 tons.
